A few of our Biya, Johnny Was styles

(eachTemple/Shop has different assortments)

Yes, life goes on and it is our gift to live in the Great fullness of the moment. Pain, depression, anger, anxiety, the many forms of fear, plus the sadness of seeing how we unwittingly hurt each other, is also very present right now. Acts of kindness towards others do wonders to dissolve these feelings, transmuting them into a gentler pleasure. We are becoming adept Alchemists. By waking up to the present moment, where peace and love abides.
