Aloha LoveTribe,
So, the winner is ...
We are One in the Dream Bridging Spaces in Between Loving Kindness is the Meme

in 2018

Picture taken by Robert in Old Quebec City. Devi is wearing a raincoat she co-designed with Pile ou Face. Although it did get wet in a big downpour, wetness never came through to clothing or body and dried in 20 minutes once inside! Thanks for all those that voted for our collective 2018 intention! First choice was We are One in the Dream, second was Loving Kindness is the Meme and third was Bridging Spaces in Between. I then realized how those 3 fit together! If our intention is recognizing our oneness, we need to build bridges with "the other", those with different and often "opposing" beliefs, and using loving kindness as the glue for the building blocks. Here's to a loving 2018! Thanks for being part of our LoveTribe!

xoxo Devi
