Aloha LoveTribe,

Yeah! Spring has come to Ashland!

And with it in our Temple Shop, an abundance of
new clothing, jewelry,
scarves, ideas, spirit ... !

Being put out as I write
this is the new spring
offerings of Johnny Was,
Biya, Love and Liberty, Pete and Greta, Citron for men as well as women.
For those fans of Citron
and Johnny Was, this would be the best time to get the best selection this spring.

Also, many other great lines and finds.
Hillary from our Berkeley shop will be visiting this Friday, she's a great stylist, so you may want to take advantage of her talents. She's excited to see our Ashland Temple Shop and meet the community. This First Friday we are offering 20% off one piece and 10% off any additional items (she loves to offer a further discount!).
I'm feeling an easier more enjoyable time springing up (besides the ease that grows with the flow), as life unfolds in adventurous ways. Enjoy!

xoxo Devi

Sneak Preview ...

While I was in LA shopping for Johnny Was and Citron ... I went by Ricki's (designer/owner of Citron) home to see this new sample. I'm trying on this silk blouse Ricki designed using Romio's Thangka painting of Buddha. Many of you have seen it on the front cover of his large book of Thangkas called, The Celestial Gallery. I will be doing a White Tara blouse with them next, as part of a series we will be doing. I brought this collaboration together 11 years ago and here is our first shirt! It is coming in next month in a limited edition.

Citron for all ... Yes, some even buttoning on the "men's side"!
